ELK PRODUCTS ANNOUNCES THEIR SLIMLINE DOOR/WINDOW SENSOR IS NOW AVAILABLE IN BROWN!

ELK Products, a premier manufacturer of security and automation solutions, is pleased to announce a new addition to their two-way wireless line. ELK's industry leading two-way technology provides advanced features to ensure reliability and overcome the vulnerabilities associated with conventional one-way wireless technology. Utilizing cutting-edge techniques to defend against interference, hacking, and jamming, ELK's two-way wireless products offer a more secure and dependable wireless solution.

New to the line is the ELK-6020BR Slimline Door/Window sensor in brown. This sensor is ideal for applications with narrow door and/or window jambs. It features front and back tamper options and uses a 3.6V lithium battery for long life.
